

SOCIETY TAKES UP THE NEW DANCES

Continued from First Page.

whose wedding took place yesterday at the home of the bride, 103 East Seventy-third street, will sail for Europe on Tuesday on the Cedric. They will pass several weeks in southern Europe and on their return will live in this city.

The wedding of Miss Rosalie M. Smith, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Dutth Smith, to Frederick Buchanan will be celebrated on March 12 at the home of the bride's parents, 213 Madison avenue. The Rev. Dr. William H. Vickers will perform the ceremony, and Mrs. Herbert Wheeler, sister of the bride will be the only attendant. Douglas Gibbons will act as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith, parents of the bride-elect, are returning from Europe to be present for the wedding.

Among the numerous entertainments for charity during the Lenten season will be the auction bridge tournament in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton on March 7 in aid of the Blue Ridge Industrial School. Many applications have been made for tickets. The Blue Ridge School, founded by the Rev. George P. Mayo, is situated in the mountain district of Greene county, Virginia. The institution gives industrial training to the children of the mountaineers.

Applications for tickets at $2.50 each may be made to Mrs. George Gordon Battle, 152 East Thirty-fifth street, or to any of the patronesses among whom are: Misses H. Snowden Marshall, Charles Dana Gibson, Winthrop Cowdin, Lorenzo Semple, Rufus L. Parsons, Charles C. Barrows, W. Willoughby Sharp, Herbert Noble, W. E. G. Gaillard, Edward R. Stettinius, J. Markham Marshall, Louis Haskell, Riley M. Gilbert, George Ethridge, Garrard Glenn, Theodore Price, John Douglas Lindsay, Robert Coleman Taylor, Thomas Green, Edward McIlvaine, Frank E. Hagemeier, St. Julien Kaveland, Bernard Harrison, Edward de Forrest Simmons, J. Herbert Claiborne, Graham Holly, John Randolph Page, William Mason Smith, Archibald B. (Swathney), Jr., John A. Renahan, W. Benton Criss, Benjamin Lawson, Miss Bessie Rossiter and Miss Sarah Alexander.

Another bridge tournament will be held in the Ritz-Carlton ballroom on the afternoon of March 11 for the benefit of the dog brigade committee of the New York Women's League for Animals. The proceeds of the tournament will be devoted to the league's hospital, which provides free treatment and care for all animals in distress belonging to people who cannot afford to pay for medical assistance. Mrs. James Speyer is president of the league, and interested with her as officers and members of the organization are other well-known women of society. Miss Elsie de Wolfe is chairman of the committee which is arranging the details of the tournament.

The list of prizes offered for the players is unusually attractive. A red chow puppy has been donated by Mrs. Franklin L. Hutton as first prize, and other donations include the use of boxes at the Metropolitan Opera House and several theatres. Mrs. Ormond G. Smith has given the use of her box at the opera for the night of April 7. Mrs. Speyer has made a similar donation, and boxes for several theatres have been donated by Mrs. Cornelius C. Cuyler and Miss Elsie de Wolfe.

There will be about 200 tables and among those who have already subscribed are: Misses William Douglas Sloane, Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Marshall Field, Paul Morton, Fairfax Landstreet, William F. Shoen, George Blumenthal, Randolph Guggenheimer, Henry W. Taft, T. Suffer Tailer, Isidor Wormser, Lewis Nixon, Henry Mortimer Brooks, Henry Draper, Justus Rupert, W. B. Osgood Field, Elbert H. Gary, Cornelius C. Cuyler, Charles R. Flint, Edward N. Breitung, Stuyvesant Fish, William E. Vanderbilt, Augustus D. Juillard, Paul D. Cravath, William B. Dinsmore, Archer M. Huntington, Ormond G. Smith, W. Watts Sherman, Charles B. Alexander, Stanley Mortimer, William Pollock, Edmund L. Baylies, Philip M. Lydig, Edward J. Berwind, Joseph H. Choate, James Blackstone Taylor, Miss Anne Morgan, Miss Mabel E. Clark and Miss Anne Jennings.

Mrs. Cornelius C. Cuyler is chairman of the reception committee, which includes Mrs. August Belmont, Mrs. J. Muhlenberg Bailey, Mrs. William Jay, Mrs. J. Dymally Prince, Mrs. M. Orme Wilson and Mrs. Frederick W. Whitridge.

Applications for tickets at $3 each may be made to Miss Elsie de Wolfe at 26 West Forty-third street.

Society is interested in the plans for what promises to be one of this season's most attractive charity dances. It will take place in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton on the night of March 25, and will be for the benefit of the Stanton Club house, a settlement for boys and young men on the lower East Side.

The dance will be a novel one, as the attraction planned for its chief feature is a contest which will be open to all guests. Prizes for the competition have already been given by Mrs. William C. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Ogden Mills, Mrs. Robert Goetz, Mrs. George Blumenthal and Mrs. James W. Gerard. Those taking part in the competition will be judged by a committee interested in the arrangements for the dance, and honors will be awarded according to merit.

Guests who so desire may go in costume. There will be an orchestra of sixty players for continuous dancing under the direction of Prof. Vegchi of the Ritz-Carlton.

Some of the members of the committee interested in the charity are Mrs. Ernest Iselin, Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Mrs. James B. Eustis, Mrs. Francis C. Bishop, Mrs. Ogden L. Mills, Mrs. George Blumenthal and Miss Mabel Choate.

Among the patronesses are Misses Charles Dana Gibson, William Pollock, Edmund L. Baylies, Philip M. Lydig, Edward J. Berwind, Joseph H. Choate, James Blackstone Taylor, Miss Anne Morgan, Miss Mabel E. Clark and Miss Anne Jennings.

Fred Pierson, Jr.

opening of the Panama Canal. One of the features to carry out the idea will be a ballet representing the flood as the canal gates are thrown open, called "The Ballet of Waves," in which many of the debutantes of the season will take part.

There will be a representative attendance of national and public officials besides members of the diplomatic corps from various foreign countries. Joseph Howland Hunt will be the master of ceremonies of the fête and Gen. Charles F. Roe will lead the pageant as grand marshal. Young people of society will assist in other details and there will be ushers in tropical uniforms and programmes will be sold by girls in the costume of the natives of Panama.

The proceeds of the fête will go toward paying the $100,000 debt of the New York Association for the Blind.

The members of the committee of honor are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Low, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Mrs. Richard Irvin and Miss Winifred Holt. Henry Morgan Post is treasurer of the fête and the chairman of the floor committee is Charles Stewart Butler.

Interest is manifested in the plans for the annual concert which the members of the Symphony Club will give in the ballroom of the Waldorf Astoria on the afternoon of April 3 for the benefit of the Speedwell Country Home in Morristown, N. J. The Symphony Club is composed of amateur musicians of society and the numerous concerts which the orchestra gives through the year for charity are always attractive. The Speedwell Country Home cares for convalescents and abandoned children and many of those interested in its welfare are prominent in society. Mrs. Henry A. Alexander is president of the society.

An elaborate musical programme is being arranged which will include besides numbers by the amateurs several solos by well-known professionals, among whom will be Mme. Julia Culp. David Mannes will conduct the orchestra as usual.

Mrs. John A. Hartwell is the active president of the Symphony Club, Mrs. George Montgomery Tuttle, vice-president; Mrs. Ruel B. Kimball, treasurer, and Mrs. Howard Brookway, secretary.

Among the recent visitors of title in New York was the Princess Ludwig Karl zu Loewenstein-Wertheim, who is now here entertained. The Princess is a daughter of the Earl of Mexborough and before her marriage was Lady Anne Saville.

Another woman of title, who is now here

on a visit, is Donna Maria Tomacelli, daughter of the Duke and Duchess de la Torre, of Italy. Her mother, who will be remembered by the older generation of society, was Miss Nina Haight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Haight, whose house at the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Fifteenth street was a famous mansion of its day. It is said to be the first house in New York to have a ballroom and was the scene of many brilliant gatherings, one of them a fancy dress ball which is often referred to in the social history of old New York. Donna Maria is at present visiting her cousin, Mrs. Lewis Cruger Hasell, and she has also been the guest of Mrs. William Iselin and of Mrs. Prescott Hall Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mather MacNeill, who have been passing the winter at the Ritz-Carlton, will as usual go to Europe for the summer. Mrs. MacNeill has been entertaining frequently during the winter, having a box at the opera. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMaster Gillespie will go to their country place, Forest Lodge in Stamford, early in the spring and will later go to Europe.

At the house of Mrs. Stephen C. Clark,

46 East Seventy-third street, on Friday afternoon will be held a hat sale for the benefit of the summer work of the Children's Club

of St. Ambrose's Chapel, in East 111th street. Hats given by some of the leading milliners will be on sale and also inexpensive

hats for children.

Miss Elsie de Wolfe gave last night at her house, 123 East Fifty-fifth street, a small dinner dance for Mme. Gregorini, who has been visiting Mrs. Frederick W.

Vanderbilt. Mme. Gregorini is the niece of the dowager Marchioness of Anglesy

and is known to many who visit Paris each year.

Mrs. Douglas Howard Hill, formerly

Sally Hargrove, is expected to arrive this week from England to visit her sister, Mrs.

George B. DeForest. She will also go to Boston to be with Mrs. William Appleton, another sister.

Mrs. Burke Roche asked several of her friends to hear on Monday afternoon a conference by Andre de Fourniquieres,

who talked of Pierre Loti and the Orient.

The night previous Mr. de Fourniquieres had a conference on a different subject at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Salmon.

The Duke and Duchess de Richelieu

since returning from their wedding trip have been much entertained here. They were at the opera on Monday last with

Howard Taylor and on Thursday night

with Mrs. James Speyer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Master McDonnell gave

at the Ritz-Carlton on Wednesday night

a dinner for her daughter, Miss Marjorie

Wiggin, on Wednesday night at 521 Park avenue.

Adrian Iselin will sail for England on Wednesday and will visit in London his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs.

Wiggin.

on Tuesday night and she expects to give a dance for young people soon after Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Ashmore are at 507 Park avenue for the remainder of the winter.

GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Pinero's "Trelawney of the Wells" will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital. The cast will be made up of well-known amateurs.

Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of

Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor

that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy

Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss

Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor

and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian

for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks

and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss

Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips,

barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be

the artists at the fourth of the series of the

Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-

Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday

evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher

League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M.

Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney,

Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene

Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West

111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev.

Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All

Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss

Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor

and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will

attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the

Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss

Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips,

barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be

the artists at the fourth of the series of the

Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-

Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of

the series, which will be given on Thursday

evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher

League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of the series, which will be given on Thursday evening at the Plaza by the St. Christopher League for the benefit of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, the cast will be made up of well-known amateurs. Mrs. Harry M. Curtis will play the part of Rose Trelawney, Miss Marie Louise Victor that of Imogene Parrott, Carlos D. Wupperbrook, 545 West 111th street. The ceremony will be at 4 o'clock, and will be performed by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend, rector of All Angels' Church. It will be followed by a reception.

Miss Esterbrook will have her sister, Miss Carroll Esterbrook, for her maid of honor and Mrs. Richard Bayard Taylor Kilian for her matron of honor. She will have two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Matlocks and Miss Fanny Fay. Seeley G. Mudd will attend his brother as best man.

Mme. Julia Claussen, soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia opera company, Miss Mary Jordan, contralto; Arthur Phillips, barytone, and Paul Kiefer, tenor, will be the artists at the fourth of the series of the Tuesday salons in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton this week. At the fifth and last of